FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Where is your studio located?

My home studio is in Meridian Township, East Lansing, Michigan.

Do you provide virtual painting lessons?

I do! Ask me about providing virtual lessons rather than in person during our consultation.

Who are your lessons targeted towards?

I teach students at all skill levels! However, what all my students have in common is a dedication to their craft and an interest in developing their techniques to become more well-rounded and skilled artists.

What mediums do you teach?

I teach both watercolor and oil paint!

Do I need my own materials?

At minimum, you should have some paint, paper, and brushes. If needed, I will email you a supplies list once we make contact.

How long will my lesson be?

Introduction courses are 2 hours. Intermediate courses are 3 hours. Supplementary lessons are per hour and can be scheduled in several hour blocks.

Will I complete a painting during our session?

Yes! In both the introductory and intermediate courses, you will complete a finished piece.

Will you teach me in my own home?

Only under special circumstances will I travel to my students. Generally, I only provide lessons in my studio located in East Lansing.

Do you teach kids?

Lessons are open to anyone 13 and over who is motivated to learn and dedicated to practicing their skills.
